PYKE TRUST

Help ensure a healthier future for people and the planet, by leaving us a gift in your will

Our vision is a world where everyone can choose freely whether and when to have children, and how many: for the benefit of all people and the planet.

In the UK we provide the broadest range of contraception and sexual health update training for nurses and doctors. In Uganda our training is in partnership with the hospitals and health centres with which we have created a sexual and reproductive health training programme designed specifically for rural Uganda.

We also design, manage and promote Population, Health and Environment programmes. These programmes are a multi-sectoral partnership approach to biodiversity conservation, human health, and sustainable livelihood generation. They lead to improved human health, particularly reproductive health, while empowering communities to achieve sustainable livelihoods, manage natural resources, conserve biodiversity, and maintain ecosystem services.

With over 50 years' expertise in sexual and reproductive health, and more recently having worked as a member of the International Union for Conservation of Nature and being granted Observer Status of the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change, we are uniquely placed to be able to promote the critical importance of removing barriers to family planning for human and environmental health.

Why making a will matters

Having an up to date will is the only way to ensure that everything you leave behind goes where you want it to go. It is an opportunity to ensure that the good causes you support now continue to be supported later. Leaving a gift to charity might also reduce inheritance tax.

We promise to use your gift to recognise this. We also promise to use your gift wisely, effectively and with sensitivity.
